Dear Children's Theatre Division

As I approach the end of my two year term, I am pleased that we've been able to expand the awareness of Creative Drama and Children's Theatre. I would like to leave this convention in March, knowing that we've added more members to our ranks.

One of our newest members has been busy organizing a drama group with his elementary students. Eric Magnus in Haysville, Kansas has become very involved with AKT and Children's Theatre. If you're near Haysville, why not give Eric a call for an exchange of ideas!

That's what this letter is all about - an exchange of ideas and a drive to enlarge our ranks in the Children's Theatre Division - and YOU can help!

Enclosed is the map of Kansas with the districts clearly marked. If you would concentrate on your district, I know you could find several people who would enjoy the activities and benefits of AKT. Several elementary and secondary teachers might relish the opportunity of Creative Drama and Children's Theatre and I'm sure there are many church groups that would like to expand their youth activities. Let's work together and bring about an increase in the Children's Theatre Division of AKT. Use your AKT directory and work with other members in your district to spread the word.

AKT is readying itself for the March convention and as much as the Children's Theatre Division offered last year with theatre productions workshops and seminars, we don't plan to rest on our laurels! Your Chair-Elect, Jeanne Klein, and I have submitted several ideas to the convention committee to go hand in hand with the activities of AKT and ACT/FEST. One exciting workshop is a Creative Drama Exchange in which several CD leaders will come together to share their favorite ideas and activities. We'll want you to participate too - so plan to bring your own favorites to share!

Thank you all for your continuing support for AKT and our Division. With your help, I know we will continue to grow.

Keep in touch and I'll see you in Hutchinson!

Sincerely,
Elizabeth

A Letter to Children's Theatre Touring Groups in Kansas and Missouri

Dear Colleagues:

Jim Nicol, Kansas Chairman for MINK and Children's Theatre Division Chairperson of the Association of Kansas Theatre has asked me to write you regarding our spring conference, to be held in Topeka April 17-19.

The AKT is a new organization, and this is our first annual meeting. We're holding it in conjunction with the Kansas Arts Commission and the Kansas Association for Religious Communities, the Arts, and the American Revolution. Our conference includes auditions, meetings, symposia, lectures and workshops, as well as performances by outstanding Kansas theatre groups. We hope to grow into a strong and articulate voice for the art of theatre in Kansas. We are trying to provide top flight representation for all forms of theatre--indeed, for all theatre people--in the state.

Obviously, then, we need your help. Won't you join the Association, come to the conference, and make your voices heard? AKT is fully recognized by ATA as the state organization, and we hope to work in conjunction with existing organizations (like MINK, among others) in the quest for excellence in Kansas theatre.

I am enclosing a couple of convention programs and some copies of the most recent issue of our newsletter, The Marquee. I'll be glad to answer any questions you have about the organization or the conference. I look forward to seeing you in Topeka, and to working with you in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Preston F. Sisk

TO: AKT Steering Committee

The AKT Constitution draft we submitted last month has been approved except for one negative vote; and I feel the question raised by that vote is so important that I am proposing the following changes for your consideration:

(p.1.) Article IV: Officers:

....and seven (not six) divisional chairpersons representing the major areas of theatre in the state of Kansas

(p.4.) Bylaws: Section II: Officers:

1. Duties

Divisional Chairpersons, one each from Children's theatre, College and University theatre, Community College theatre (added), Community theatre, Professional theatre, Religious, recreation and Army theatre, and Secondary theatre....

Rationale for the proposed change:

George Mastick wrote expressing the view that the Community College theatre was a distinct and identifiable group in Kansas and that its problems were sufficiently different from other college and university theatre personnel to justify a separate chairperson on the AKT Executive Committee. While it is true that ATA lumps all college and university theatre people together (UCTA) there is no reason why we in Kansas cannot recognize the special nature of Community Colleges by making a separate chairperson on our Executive Committee.

I have not had the concurrence of the other members of the Constitutional sub-committee for this change. Since time is running short, I thought we could gather the general feeling in this one shot.

Please let me know your reaction to the proposed change by returning the ballot enclosed.

Thanks and best wishes for the summer,

Jed H. Davis

Dear Jonathan:

As I indicated recently, the formation of an Association of Kansas Theatres is progressing into the constitutional phase and we are beginning to think of services needed by people who do theatre work in this state--in whatever capacity at whatever level. As you know we embrace people in community theatres, colleges and universities, recreation, secondary schools, churches, private studios, children's theatres and even army bases. We of the Steering Committee feel that service will be the key word in any future success for the organization. I hope the Kansas Arts Commission will become a strong ally in our common cause.

We spent some time last Saturday discussing a possible service link between the universities of this state (K.U., W.S.U. and K-State) and the other theatre workers round and about. Strong voice has been given to the need of small-staff theatres for technical help, design help, directing and management helps and other specialized kinds of help. Presumably also there are people--particularly graduate students in theatre--at the universities who have the skills, knowledge and inclination to be of help, and with a little financial assistance could spend some time (perhaps linked to credit options) in a community conducting workshops, special sessions, mini-courses and even directing or designing shows. The local community (school, recreation system, church, etc.) would be expected to support at least half of the expense involved, but the student (who would be carefully selected by the University theatre faculty) would be compensated some for his time.

It seemed to everyone that this idea might be a germinal plan that the KAC would support. It would certainly be state-wide, serving all parts of the constituency equally. It is also something badly needed, especially by community theatres and secondary school theatres where help is minimal (especially trained help) and the hours are long.

I was mandated to write you about this budding plan and get your reaction. Do you think, if properly written up as a proposal, this is something KAC would support, and if so with what specifications and limitations?

I look forward to your reply.

Very truly yours

Jed H. Davis

The Constitution sub-committee met last Saturday, April 27, and came up with the attached Constitution and By-laws.

Will you please read this over carefully, and decide whether you could support it as a way to get started. I'm sure you realize that no one considers it perfect, but the committee was satisfied that it could provide the framework for getting our organization going.

Please indicate on the ballot below your approval or disapproval. If too many of you object to a particular feature or features, we'll have to reconvene and deal with the objections. If you approve, I can send this on in to ATA for action at the convention in August.

Thanks for your time and thoughts.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

LAWRENCE, KANSAS

Dear Colleague:

On the occasion of the Central Region's American College Theatre Festival at the University of Kansas last month a special meeting of Kansas theatre people was held. We tentatively explored the need for an Association of Kansas Theatres (AKT), and concluded we should give it a try. A Steering Committee was formed, consisting of:

- Paul Schreiber, Coffeyville High School
- Terryl Asla, student at University of Kansas
- Preston Sisk, student at University of Kansas
- Norman Fedder, Kansas State University
- Sister Mary Dolorita Flynn, College of St. Mary
- George Mastick, Neosho Community College
- Lloyd Frerer, Ft. Hays State College
- Jed Davis, University of Kansas

As we met to discuss plans and prospects, we thought it essential that communication be established immediately with all interested Theatre people in the state of Kansas so that the Steering Committee could have the benefit of your thinking, a statement of your needs, and suggestions of ways such a theatre organization could serve those needs.

I hope you will take a moment to jot down some of these ideas and send them along to me. We are planning to meet again on March 30; so please aim for that date.

Here are some of the thoughts we aired which might make the Association valuable to its members:

1. Exchange information about programs, production seasons, special curriculum features, etc.
2. Establish a "clearing house," a registry of people (graduate students, directors, designers) who would be willing to help new and not-so-new groups (community theatres, children's theatres, high schools, churches) solve their production problems.

3. Find ways to encourage a broadened function for theatre in many aspects of education--social science, language arts, natural science, mechanics, history, etc.--at all levels from elementary grades through college.
4. Give impetus to new playwrights by improving channels of communication between them and potential producers and encouraging script-in-hand readings of new plays.

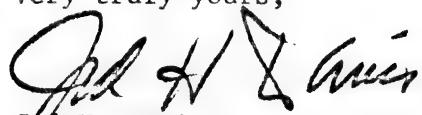

I hope you have other ideas as to the projects the AKT might undertake and the specific ways this organization might serve you.

An extra letter addressed to a student in your theatre is enclosed if you are representing a theatre department in a college. Would you please select a student who is likely to respond and pass the letter on. Thanks--and won't you please take a moment to drop me a card indicating

- your interest in AKT
- your willingness to participate in programs and projects
(which ones?)
- your interest in helping form the association
- your ideas about how AKT could serve you and others
you know in this field.

Thanks for your time and thoughts.

Very truly yours,

Jed H. Davis
Chairman, AKT Steering Committee

P.S. I want to emphasize that we are anxious to include people from all types of theatres--colleges and universities, recreation, high school, children's theatres, community theatres, army theatres, etc.--so please share this letter with colleagues and friends who might be interested.

Re: Proposed change in the By-laws of the AKT Constitution.

The following change in the By-laws of the AKT Constitution is recommended by the Executive Committee:

That Section II, Subsection 1., paragraph on division chairpersons, which now reads:

Division Chairpersons, one each from Children's theatre, College and University theatre, Community College theatre, Community theatre, Professional theatre, Religious, Recreation and Army theatre, and Secondary theatre shall...

be changed to read:

Divison Chairpersons, one each from Children's theatre, College and University theatre, Community College theatre, Community theatre, Professional theatre, and Secondary theatre shall...

This change, in effect, subsumes the division known as Religious, recreation and Army theatre, into the Community theatre divison.

Dear Tony:

As I said in Washington, we are in the process of forming the Association of Kansas Theatres (AKT). Do you have a model constitution or two you could send us. We have that blurb from TN about Tax-exempt status and will heed it.

Since we are having our Constitution meeting April 27, I would appreciate this material as quickly as whatever.

Best regards and wishes for a successful and profitable term of office.

Yours,

Dear Tony,

Do you have any budget for traveling to State Theatre Association meetings? We are going to have a good one, in conjunction with the Association of Arts Councils of Kansas and the Kansas Association of Religious Communities, the arts and the American Revolution (KARCAAR). The Kansas Community Theatre,,which is also holding its annual meeting then, and the state FACT winner will perform as part of it. The high school group is not all that well represented, but we have hopes they'll come into the joint effort more strongly.

At any rate, we are excited about the first conference, add if you are able to be there, I'll invite you to say a word or two on behalf of the ATA "officialdom" at the Saturday noon luncheon/business meeting, April 19. I might even manage a comp. ticket for you to my Don Giovanni back in Lawrence that night. (We are only 20 miles from the conference site - and I'd get you there in time!)

So consider this an invitation. I'll send a complete program when we get them run off. I also plan to be in Chicago, March 21. See you there.

Very truly yours,

Dear Jed:

I just received my copy of THE MARQUEE, Act I, Scene 1, and I wanted to tell you how good I thought it was. AKT is certainly moving quickly and in fine fashion.

Also, to save another letter and another 10¢ stamp, may I ask if there is anything from AKT that you would like me to report at the March meeting of the ATA Board? I will, of course, cull some tid-bits from THE MARQUEE; but, are there other items or concerns from AKT that you would like aired at the Board meeting? A similar request will be going to the other 12 ATA state affiliates.

Hope all goes well; look forward to seeing you soon.

Tony

Dear Mr. Davis:

Thank you for your letters and we especially appreciate your acceptance to speak. Charles Kephart of Salina has agreed to talk about community theatres-- I'll let you know about other people as they come up.

Now, Conference details. I really don't know where to start except to say this is really a BIG DEAL to the Kansas Arts Commissioners, and they have in mind a combination extravaganza and working session. As a result, we've gone ahead with our plans and have worked out an agenda, which I have enclosed. As you will notice, part of the Conference will devote itself to drama as an art form on Thursday afternoon, and I would think that session would be of particular interest to your membership. Of course, you would also be more than welcome to join us for other sessions and/or meals. In that case, however, I would really appreciate an estimate of numbers, no matter how rough.

I can't think of anything else to add at the moment, but please feel free to call me at 296-3335 if you have questions.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Kansan:

The Kansas Arts Commission and the Association of Community Arts Councils of Kansas are sponsoring a Spring Conference on the Arts, April 17 and 18 at the Topeka Ramada Inn. We hope you'll be able to attend.

Participants at the Conference will include artists, state legislators and officials, chamber of commerce representatives, educators, businessmen, and others involved in the arts in Kansas. The Conference will consist of lectures, panel presentations, group discussions and exhibitions by Kansas arts organizations. All projects funded by the KAC will contribute a display or sample presentation, so participants will be able to see how much is already happening in the arts in Kansas.

The Conference will attempt to deal with a variety of topics. Thursday afternoon participants will have the opportunity to break into groups to discuss various art forms. Dinner that night will be a gala affair, and afterwards a showcase of talent available to Kansans will be provided.

Friday will dawn early for Conference participants with a breakfast session on business and arts. After that, fund-raising will be the key issue. In the afternoon there will be a session on publicity, followed by a variety of sessions on how the arts apply to on-going community projects.

This Conference is designed not only as an educational experience for those Kansans who have put their hearts and souls into creating arts opportunities in Kansas, it is also meant for those people who have not yet become involved. If you are in the first group and know of people in the second, ask them along.

The nice thing about planning an arts conference is that one is encouraged to think creatively. This will be a conference unlike any others. Plans are shaping up quickly and aside from providing participants with practical advice, the Conference should provide inspiration and joy to those who are excited about the creative achievements of others.

To be a part of the Conference, it is necessary to fill out the attached coupon. This will put you on our mailing list for further information.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me.

Hope to see you in April!

Dear Theatre Directors:

As you may know, a new organization called the Association of Kansas Theatres has been formed. If you have not already received a brochure, one is enclosed for your information.

One objective of the association of the AKT is to bring all theatre people in the state together once each year. This year the occasion will be held April 18 and 19 in Topeka. (The brochure gives more specifics.) A part of the annual events will be AUDITIONS.

All theatres in the state that hire or plan to hire actors, technicians, guest directors, guest consultants, etc., should be involved in the annual auditions. Theatres would include colleges and community summer theatres that might like to recruit summer theatre performers or apprentices, or colleges that might like to recruit students to respective schools.

With many producers and directors viewing the session, the number of auditionees will be large. Auditionees may be of all ages and interests, and will not be limited to students. Audition announcements will be sent to you personally in about two weeks. May I call on you to please circulate these to all interested persons, classes, groups, etc.

Please fill out and return the enclosed form which will be posted for all auditionees to read. I urge you to have a representative of your theatre in attendance, to use the auditions either for personnel or for a show of interest this first year, and help to make the annual audition concept a useful service to your theatre and to all artists in the state.

We look forward to seeing you in Topeka for the auditions.

Cordially,

Wesley Van Tassel, Producer
